RE: "It's time," Inslee said, "to say no to Tim Eyman. It's time for Tim Eyman to stop running this state."

On Friday, Washington DC Congressman Jay Inslee who is running for Governor gave a speech in Seattle to an environmental group. Here's an excerpt of a news story about it: Inslee spoke to the crowded room of liberals ... Then he namechecked "the threat" as he saw it. "There's someone that wants to go backwards, one person ... " Of course, I was waiting for him to cite his rival for the governor's mansion, Washington State Attorney General Rob McKenna. "It's time," Inslee said, "to say no to Tim Eyman. It's time for Tim Eyman to stop running this state."

Here is my response: "Washington DC Congressman Inslee needs to understand that it is the voters who are approving our initiatives. Last year's Initiative 1053 passed with 64% of the vote. It was the 4th time voters approved its' tougher-to-raise-taxes policies. If you don't like voters, you're in the wrong profession. This year's Initiative 1125 closes a multi-billion-dollar loophole the Legislature put in last year's I-1053, ensuring that transportation taxes and tolls comply with I-1053's provisions and the 18th Amendment to our state Constitution. If you don't like the Constitution, you're in the wrong profession. Congressman Inslee will soon learn that in this Washington, citizens support the initiative process and believe that the government should follow the law and abide by the Constitution."

What did he say again? "It's time for Tim Eyman to stop running this state." For 15 years, Jack, Mike and I have worked really hard to protect taxpayers and we are proud of what we've been able to accomplish. But we are under no illusions that we are running the state. With the support of our thousands of supporters throughout the state, we are giving the average taxpayer an equal voice in the process. Help us keep doing that.
