RE: We need your help to push I-1125 in these final days

Even though our internal polling among likely voters shows I-1125 ahead, we know it's gonna be close. So we need your help to push I-1125 in these final days. Email your friends and encourage them to vote for I-1125. Call your relatives and prod them to support I-1125. Talk with your co-workers and encourage them to pass I-1125. Here's a few important reasons:

- * Voters approved last year's tougher-to-raise-taxes I-1053 but Olympia promptly violated it, putting a multi-billion-dollar loophole in it. They exempted transportation taxes, fees, and tolls from its protections. I-1125 closes that loophole and prohibits (again) unelected bureaucrats from unilaterally imposing taxes and fees.
- * Voters overwhelmingly rejected a state income tax last year because they didn't want to give Olympia a billion-dollar blank check. Instead of listening to the people's message, Olympia simply targeted a new pot of money: "tolls" on every highway, bridge, road, and street in the Puget Sound region and beyond. But they don't want any limits on how they can spend the money, so they're just taxes by another name.
- * I-1125 solidifies the protections we've had for nearly a century in our state: transportation money limited only to transportation, tolls for the project and not Christmas tree add-ons, tolls expire after the project is paid for, and uniform and consistent tolls with no social engineering variable tolls which disproportionately hurt the poor and working class. Toll aren't taxes and I-1125 keeps it that way.

When voters approve I-1125, state and local governments will have to tip-toe when it comes to tolling. If voters reject I-1125, it'll be like pigs at the trough with tolls. They won't be able to control themselves. They'll put them everywhere and spend the money anywhere. During these tough times, it's more important than ever to protect ourselves with I-1125.

Very important: we encourage you to email, call, talk with everyone you know and encourage them to vote yes on I-1125.
